

FilmStation™ Imager Accessories

Mobilize your FilmStation Imagers.

Sony's FilmStation Dry Film Imagers are the versatile, affordable and compact solutions for space-challenged hospitals, imaging centers and mobile coaches, offering flexible vertical or horizontal installation. The lineup includes the UP-DF500 and UP-DF550 models for general radiology applications and the UP-DF750 model that supports both mammography as well as several other radiology applications.

And now with these new FilmStation imager accessories, you can mobilize these imagers with portable carts and extra film trays for added convenience and ease of use.

Put your imaging center on wheels.

The convenient roller carts make it easy to transport the FilmStation Imager, extra trays and media from room to room. The cart is available in three configurations:

- 1) Vertical installation of the FilmStation Imager
- 2) Horizontal installation of the FilmStation Imager
- 3) Dual installation of two imagers in the horizontal position

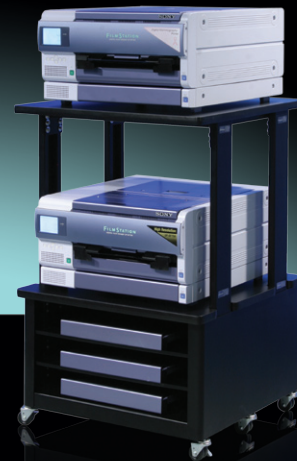

Each cart houses four compartments that can be used to store media packs, starter kits or extra film trays.
